Byes

Four byes of ½ points in the first 6 rounds can be requested to the arbiter in writing, at the latest, before the end of the previous round and must include both the request for bye and the signature of the player. Titled players are not allow to ask for a Bye just in exception the chief arbiter allow them in case of Major force.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Unjustified failure to appear in one round or two rounds, even if they are justified, will mean withdrawal from the tournament and loss of rights to prizes if obtained. The player who has already requested a 0 point bye will no longer be able to justify a forfeit.

The FACV reserves the right to register and admit players.

The clothing of the participants will be appropriate for an international chess tournament, being the organization's power to expel any participant who does not comply with the instructions received in this regard.

A Competition Committee for the tournament will be formed, made up of the tournament director and two players.

The pairing will be done with the VEGA program.

The FACV may exercise the right of non-admission in the next open tournaments such as the one convened here to those players who register and do not show up, as well as those who withdraw without notifying the arbiter, provided that the absence is not duly justified.

It is forbidden to have electronic devices such as mobile phones, tablets, smart watches, etc. in the gaming area.

Note 22/2018 will apply: <https://www.facv.org/2018/2018-circular-22.pdf>

and the FIDE Laws.

In the game room it will not be allowed to eat food or have drinks that do not have a stopper to avoid spills.

Participants with their registration accept these competition rules and the Privacy Policy of the FACV <https://www.facv.org/aviso-legal>.

The organization will take photos in the tournament for their normal publication as news, it being possible for the participants to express their reservations through the web contact form at <https://www.facv.org/contactar>

The first three players in the general classification must be present at the closing ceremony, except in cases of force majeure duly announced in advance and whose justification is accepted by the organization. Failure to comply with this requirement may mean losing the rights to the prize.

Everything not specified in these rules will be governed by the FACV, FEDA and FIDE Competition Regulations or will be resolved by the organization.

A player invited with conditions by the organization must play except in exceptional circumstances (force majeure), such as illness or disability. Acceptance of another invitation or participation in another tournament or event is not considered a valid reason for not participating or withdrawing.
